

Professor Kristján Kristjánsson (PhD, University of St. Andrews) is Deputy Director in the Jubilee Centre for Character and Virtues and Professor of Character Education and Virtue Ethics at the University of Birmingham, U.K.

His interests lie in research on character strengths and virtues at the intersection between moral philosophy, moral psychology and moral education.

He has published seven books on those issues, including, Aristotelian Character Education, which was published by Routledge in 2015 and won the SES Prize for the best Education book of 2015 in the U.K. His latest book is Flourishing as the Aim of Education (Routledge, 2020). His previous books include the much cited Virtues and Vices in Positive Psychology (C.U.P., 2013).

He is on the Steering Committee of IPEN and has published widely on positive education. He is the Editor of the leading journal in the field of moral education, Journal of Moral Education.