

Vertti Kiukas is the secretary general of Finnish Federation for Social Affairs and Health - Soste, an umbrella organisation of all social and health NGOs and some other institutions in Finland. Kiukas has a master's degree in history from University of Helsinki.

Kiukas has worked for over 15 years as a CEO of various voluntary social and health organisations, and shorter periods as a project manager at the Finnish Ministry of Law and chief of staff of Finnish Social Democratic Party. He has several posts in foundations, corporations, and NGOs