

Ziggi Ivan Santini

Ziggi Ivan Santini has a PhD in mental health epidemiology from the University of Barcelona and was enrolled in the only existing Marie Curie initial training network dedicated specifically to the field of mental health. Since his doctorate, he has been conducting research at the Danish National Institute of Public Health. He specializes in public mental health promotion, with a strong focus on social epidemiology and quantitative research disciplines.